

I am vehemently opposed to allowing my bank to call me at home for solicitation purposes. That is what we in Indiana have fought so hard to control is unwanted calls. They have the U.S. Mail as an outreach avenue and that should be sufficient. Calling me at home is not going to change my decision to accept any offer they may have for me! Thanks CS Bayne